

CHURCH of the RESURRECTION NEWS

Nr. 11 (3591) March 16th, 2025

2nd SUNDAY OF LENT - C

On the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert and temptation by the devil to the glory shown in Jesus' Transfiguration.

The Transfiguration occurs on a mountain in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples—Peter, James and John. These are among the first disciples that Jesus called in Luke's Gospel. We recently heard this Gospel at Mass, on the fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Only Luke's Gospel, which often describes Jesus at prayer, indicates that Jesus is praying as his appearance changes to bright white. Luke indicates that the three disciples were sleeping while Jesus prayed. They will be sleeping again as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane before his Passion and death.

As they awake, Peter and the disciples see Jesus Transfigured and Elijah and Moses present with Jesus. Elijah and Moses, both significant figures in the history of Israel, represent Jesus' continuity with the Law and the Prophets. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospels, there is reference to conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel explains that this conversation is about Jesus' later accomplishments in Jerusalem. Luke describes this as his exodus, connecting Jesus' Passion, death, and Resurrection with the Israel's Exodus from Egypt.

On witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, Peter offers to construct three tents for them. Having just awoken, perhaps Peter's offer was made in confusion. We also notice that Peter reverted from his earlier confession that Jesus is the Messiah, calling Jesus "master" instead. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven speaks, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding that the disciples listen to him. This voice from heaven recalls the voice that was heard at Jesus' baptism which, in Luke's Gospel, spoke directly to Jesus as God's Son.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, the disciples keep secret what they have seen. Not until they also witness his Passion and death will the disciples understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death. (loyolapress.com) †R.R.

IN MEMORIAM

Last week, we bid farewell to our beloved parishioners

†SIGUTE STUOPIS, 82 and †JURGIS KISKUNAS, 99

May They Rest in the Peace of Christ.

Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit!

Come, strength and sweetness of God!

Come, You, movement and peace!

Renew our courage,

Fill our solitude in the world,

Create in us intimacy with God!

We no longer say, like the prophet:

"Come from the four winds",

As if we did not yet know from where you came;

We say: Come, Spirit from the pierced side of Christ upon the cross!

Come from the mouth of the Risen One!

Pope Francis marks 12th anniversary of pontificate in hospital

As Pope Francis recovers from bilateral pneumonia at Rome's Gemelli Hospital, we recall the many expressions of pastoral care for the universal Church he has carried out over the past year.

In the twelfth year of his pontificate, Pope Francis marked several key events for the Catholic Church, during which he turned 88 years old. He has spent the past month receiving treatment for bilateral pneumonia at Rome's Gemelli Hospital. Before this health-induced pause, the Pope recited the Angelus or Regina Coeli with the faithful 45 times, held 32 General Audiences, presided over 30 Masses, and held nearly 230 meetings.

He opened the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica on December 24, 2024, to inaugurate the Jubilee of Hope. Two days later, he opened the Holy Door at Rebibbia prison, symbolically extending the Jubilee into areas of life most in need of reconciliation.

Throughout October, Pope Francis led the final session of the Synod on Synodality, which closed the three-year process to engage all corners of the Church in discussions on listening and participation.

In September, the Pope undertook his longest-ever Apostolic Journey, which took him to Indonesia, Papua New Guinea, Timor-Leste, and Singapore. That same month, he visited Luxembourg and Belgium, and then in December he travelled to the French island of Corsica.

The Holy Father also made three pastoral visits to the Italian cities of Venice, Verona, and Trieste between May and July. During the year, Pope Francis published his fourth encyclical, Dilexit nos, focusing on the role of Jesus Christ's heart in modern society.

He also presided over his tenth Consistory, creating 21 new cardinals from countries such as Iran, Japan, Chile, the Philippines, and Algeria.

Throughout the year, the Pope sent letters and telegrams to Church leaders in conflict zones and disaster-stricken areas, never tiring of appealing for everyone to seek peace.

Then, on February 14, he was admitted to hospital after suffering for several days from a bout of bronchitis. After the most critical part of his illness had passed, the Pope sent an audio message to the faithful praying for him in St. Peter's Square on March 6.

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your prayers for my health from the Square," he said in Spanish. "I accompany you from here. May God bless you, and may the Virgin protect you. Thank you."
